

Best Evidence ENT 2024:
Integrative Health and Wellness for Patients and Clinicians

July 28-30

CONFERENCE EVALUATION

An electronic evaluation will be used for this conference. You will receive an email from Alyssa Schwab on Tuesday morning, July 30, with a subject line that reads 'Evaluation – Best Evidence ENT 2024.' Please complete this brief evaluation before claiming CME credit. Thank you!

TO CLAIM CME CREDIT

The Medical College of Wisconsin uses EthosCE an online/electronic learning management system to streamline the accreditation process. You may claim credit as soon as your attendance is recorded, and your evaluation is completed. Please refer to the steps below to claim your credit.

Log in at ocpe.mcw.edu → click my activities → click claim credit → enter the number of credits you wish to claim (maximum credit for the course is 13.25).

Should you require assistance in claiming CME credit, personnel will be available to assist during conference hours – please stop at the registration desk.
